A Visit to Eden.

During an extended business trip I had occasion to visit the town of Sunday. Inez. About 2 p. m, we arrived there (by hack) and must say that I was glad to meet old acquaintances, friends and relatives. This town is nestled down in the valley ly by the natives of the surrounding country, a more kindhearted extend a welcome to all who visit their abode.

The day I arrived I saw a number of little boys from 6 to 10 years old, all going one way with books to M. F. Conlay, Louisa, Ky. in their hands. I asked two or three where they were going. The answer came very quickly and proudly that "we are going to the bible class." On a closer examination I found that each of these little boys had a bible and were on their way to a bible class. I asked who was their teacher and the answer was Bro. Andre.

The evening following I saw a number of larger boys with their bibles going to the bible class, and they seemed to think it strange that they met on certain evenings of each week.

The day following this I saw the

A. J. Kirk, Prosecuting Attorney asked me to the bible class, that it was for all ages. So I went, with a little hesitation, as I thought I might have to join in, and I was not very well versed in the bible and knowing from information that these people had been instructed in this good work for some time, and I was told that the little
